Our Chavurah

Those who have joined us for the holidays and Shabbat services during the past few years already know that Rabbi Marcey Wagner leads us in services that are both intellectually thoughtful and spiritually meaningful. We are thrilled that she will be conducting our services again this year.

The Board of Trustees of Chavurat Emet is also happy to announce that we will be holding our Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur services in the lovely atrium at the Elks Lodge in Smithtown.

Chavurat Emet strives to enrich lives and its members can enjoy the company of friends at:

- *Book discussions
- *Defensive driving classes
- *Shabbat services
- *Celebrations of life-cycle events

You can also count on Chavurat Emet to continue to support our families in times of joy and sorrow and to give support to the larger community through food drives and charitable causes.

Our dues structure remains affordable and at the same levels as last year. If your personal finances make it difficult for you to join us, please do not hesitate to contact a member of the Board of Trustees listed in this brochure.

We invite you to join us for High Holiday services and we hope that you will connect with new and old friends as you share in our Shabbat and holiday services as well as our activities throughout the year. We look forward to praying together and wishing you and your family L'Shana Tova.
